U. S. OPENS CAMPAIGN OF "TACTFUL PRESSURE" FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC REHABILITATION

Secretary For India Has Resigned

LONDON, March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Edwin Samuel Montagu, the secretary for India, tendered his resignation today and it was accepted.

New York To San Francisco Boat Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 9.—Arrival of the Pacific mail liner Ventura, scheduled for some time before tonight, will mark renewal of the semi-regular passenger service between New York and San Francisco, started by the Pacific Mail in 1848 and discontinued in the '50's.

Saves Youth With Penknife

CINCINNATI, O., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Surgery with a pen knife yesterday saved the life of two-year-old John Washington, who was taken to a Cincinnati hospital with a peanut lodged in his windpipe, causing strangulation. The child had stopped breathing when Dr. C. C. Payne arrived at the ward last night. Realizing that death would ensue before he could send for surgical instruments, Dr. Payne took his pen knife, slit open the boy's throat and incised the trachea just below where the peanut was lodged. This permitted the passage of air and the child soon was revived.

Model Farms For Russia

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—American and Canadian farmers and technical advisers are planning to re-habilitate the economic life of soviet Russia. The plan is to build the Baltic-American liner Estonia, when that vessel sails tomorrow, agricultural machinery, tractors, motor trucks, electric motors, irrigation and drainage supplies, various tools and machine equipment will be taken by the ship to the soviet government, according to the Society for Technical Aid to Soviet Russia, which will give the farmers of the party special land grants, on which they will be expected to build model farms and agricultural instruction schools for the Russian peasants.

French Own Boss At 25

PARIS, Mar. 9.—(Citizens of France upon reaching the age of twenty-five hereafter may marry without obtaining consent of their parents. Such is the bill which has just been passed by the French chamber. Hereafter, French men and women under 30 could not wed without the authorization of their parents. Elopement is unknown in France.

Government Takes Steps To Avert Coal Strike

Being A Princess Bored Her—So Dorothy Deacon Is Plain American Girl Again

By NEA Service
ROME, March.—Will the moving finger of romance ever cease writing dissolutions in the story of the Deacon family?
What will be the next chapter in the lives of those beautiful Americans—the Deacon girls?
The Sacred Rota tribunal of the Vatican recently annulled the marriage of Prince Albert Radziwill to Dorothy Deacon.

Just as Gladys Deacon had become the Duchess of Marlborough, Dorothy discarded her title of Princess and became a plain Miss Deacon again.

Opposed Match
Princess Radziwill, mother of Prince Albert, always opposed the match. Another who opposed it was said to have been the beautiful 17 year old Dorothy, herself. But Prince Albert was madly infatuated.

Dorothy Deacon, youngest of four beautiful girls, was a small child when her mother appeared one night and took her away from the French convent where she and her sister were being educated. The girl scarcely understood the tragedy which had befallen her.

Her father, Edward Parker Deacon, son of the distinguished Boston family, had shot and killed M. Abeille, a Frenchman, reported to be in love with his beautiful wife.

All of the Deacon girls chose to go with their mother, who took the name of Mrs. Florence Baldwin, being a daughter of the richest American naval officer—later Admiral Baldwin. In the Borghese palace at Rome and in the degrading magnificence of the Farnese palace at Caprarola "Dolly" Deacon was given ample opportunity to fulfill the princely spirit.

Yet when Roman society became agog over the determination, as they said, of Mrs. Florence Baldwin, to marry Dorothy to the infatuated prince—Dorothy said "No."

Once in London the marriage guests had to leave the church disappointed, but a week later, Dorothy appeared and the ceremony took place.

Shocked Nobility
Princess Radziwill was shocked at the marriage, shocked at the unprincely conduct of the young American girl. For Dorothy's offenses were that she whistled in those state-ly halls.

Think of it!
Then she shocked Roman nobility by appearing at a ball in a small chariot drawn by two leopards!

Over a year ago, Mrs. Florence Baldwin died, and as though to give credence to the rumor that she had urged Dorothy into the marriage the suit for annulment was instituted.

Rumor has it that Dorothy was just bored to death at being a princess.

CLEVELAND.—Mayor Fred Kohler announced that Cleveland's new $6,000,000 auditorium will be officially opened about April 15.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Coal miners and mine operators were urged today by Secretary of Labor Davis "in the interest of common sense to get together and save the country from the costly result of a strike."

The labor secretary in a formal statement said that with the approval of President Harding he had entered into direct communication with representatives of the coal operators of the central competitive field with a view to a joint meeting of the operators and miners prior to March 27, when the present working agreement expires.

The statement as issued by the department of labor said:

"Secretary Davis is now in direct communication with representatives of the coal operators of the central competitive field. It is his earnest desire that both miners and operators carry out the spirit and intent of the resolution adopted at the New York conference of March, 1920, which provided for a preliminary conference to meet prior to April 1, 1922, to arrange a time and place for a meeting to take up and consider the making of a new agreement."

"The secretary's action is heartily approved by President Harding. None of the government officials in touch with the threatened coal situation can see any objection to a council table gathering of those directly interested in the bituminous coal industry and particularly in the present situation when it is a part of the last agreement and in line with long time practice in the coal industry."

Believe Notorious Ghost Has Given Up Pranks During Lent

CALEDONIA MILLS, N. S., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Antagonists of the ghost are beginning to believe the notorious ghost that used to scare people in this valley must have given up noise making during Lent. Again last night nothing happened in the home that Alex MacDonald and his family deserted because they thought it was haunted. All night Dr. Walter Franklin Prince, New York scientist, who came here to investigate the ghost story, lay with one eye open waiting for the spook to try to get funny with him. He didn't hear a sound or feel or see anything peculiar.

Tonight, the third one since Dr. Prince arrived in search of the ghost, everything possible was done to make the eerie feel perfectly at home in the hope that it will be able to resist the temptation to have a little fun. MacDonald and his wife and their adopted daughter, Mary Ellen, are coming back to sleep in the beds they said the ghost scared them away from. Other conditions under which the manifestations are said to have occurred also will be reproduced.

Dr. Prince hasn't said anything about it but there are reasons for surmising that he intends to keep an eye on little Mary Ellen tonight. Not long ago the doctor let it be known that in all his experience in tracking ghosts, the strange pranks that frightened others, always turned out to have had their cause in some human beings, which more often than not was a little boy or girl with playful tendencies.

Dr. Prince had a long chat with Mary Ellen yesterday during which he persuaded her to spend the night in the house. MacDonald dropped around during the day to feed the cattle as is his custom, and he too agreed to make another attempt to sleep in the place. The cattle spent a peaceful night and calmly chewed their cuds this morning. When the ghostly alarms and excursions used to make the night hideous for the MacDonalds, the cattle often were found at dawn in the wrong stalls, with knots in their tails, which no one would admit having tied.

TOLEDO, O., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Four pennies rewarded three armed stick-up men who waylaid C. J. Jorris, stung bound and gagged him, and then threw him into a ditch in the vicinity of his home here last night, a police report says.

Klan Chief To Turn Up "Evil Doers"

LOS ANGELES, CAL., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—William S. Cohorn, Los Angeles attorney, grand goblin of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, announced today he soon would go to Kern county, California, to investigate troubles there attributed by some to the Ku Klux Klan and "to expose those who are breaking laws and hiding behind the Ku Klux organization."

"I am tired of this book and I am going to stop it," he said. "We have over 3,000 men in Kern county and I am going there within the next few days and will personally conduct a campaign to turn up the evil-doers." Mr. Cohorn said three men had left Taft shortly after members of the Klan had discovered they had been sending threatening notes signed "K. K. K."

Seven persons in Bakersfield have received warning or threatening letters within the last day or two, the police announced today.

Mrs. Mary Barnes, 35, proprietor of a rooming house in Fresno, is reported to have been given 24 hours to close up and leave town. She is reported to have left.

Comptroller Says He Would Advise Banks To Decline To Accept Certificates As Security

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Comptroller of the Currency Crissinger announced today that in the event of the enactment of soldiers' bonus legislation providing for payments by adjusted service certificates, he would advise national banks to decline the certificates as security for loans.

Mr. Crissinger described the proposed plan of issuing adjusted service certificates for use by the soldiers, if desired, as collateral for loans to eight per cent of their face value as "the worst kind of frozen credit" and declared while he would be without authority to order national banks to refuse to accept them as security, he would strongly advise against their acceptance.

The certificates would be "non-negotiable paper," Mr. Crissinger explained, and loans upon them would load the banks up for the three year term which they cover, with an unmovable mass of security.

The certificates would be similar to real estate loans which are not redemtable at federal reserve banks, he said, and "far from the liquid security best for the banks."

Bandit On Bicycle

DETROIT, Mar. 9.—A man riding a bicycle pulled up alongside a man and woman in an automobile in the northern part of the city early today, flourished a pistol, demanded and obtained the motorists' money, then pedaled off himself to a hiding place the police flyer was unable to locate.

No Further Concessions Weather Forecast By Radio

CHICAGO, March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The local weather bureau is completing plans for the broadcasting of weather reports by radio. The service is expected to start within a day or two, and, like the market quotations sent out by the Chicago board of trade daily, it will be from the K. Y. W. station on a 350 meter wave length, which is expected to reach a 200 mile radius.

Simultaneously, Leonid Kravich, in an interview with the newspaper Izvestia, declared that soviet Russia would not abandon her control of foreign trade.

The soviet premier appeared refreshed after his sojourn in the country. He said he had been unable to do all his necessary work, because of illness, but now he hoped he was sufficiently recovered to be able to go to Genoa and tell Mr. Lloyd George it is no use to threaten Russia with things like prohibition.

He declared Russia had been tried and tested by more serious things during the last few years and knew that these were idle threats, not to be carried out. He said he would be able to show the members at the Genoa conference whose principal purpose was trade with Russia, many important trade contracts already signed on Russia's terms.

"Attempts to put us in the position of a conquered country are nonsense," he said. "We as merchants know what we owe you and what you owe us, and also what should be your lawful profit."

Several persons in Bakersfield have received warning or threatening letters within the last day or two, the police announced today.

Mrs. Mary Barnes, 35, proprietor of a rooming house in Fresno, is reported to have been given 24 hours to close up and leave town. She is reported to have left.

Decline To Participate In Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Refusal of the United States to participate in the Genoa conference may be viewed as the first step in a campaign of "tactful pressure" to promote economic rehabilitation of Europe, it was said today by a high official of the American government. It should not be regarded, this official said, as indication of the United States, desire to hold aloof from the grave problems confronting European nations.

The United States can not afford to enter into a situation where the help expected from it can not be given, officials explained, adding that the American government must be viewed as holding its support in abeyance until such time as the European nations "get down to brass tacks" in the matter of settling their houses to order.

Economic problems regarded by this country as of supreme importance in the consideration of methods of world rehabilitation, include principally the rearrangement of German reparations and balancing of budgets by certain foreign nations.

Without consideration of these questions in the view of the United States, it was said, there could be no practical attempt at world-wide economic readjustment.

It is improbable that there will be a change in the agenda of the Genoa conference before its meeting on April 10, which would permit the United States to be represented. Officials said the American ambassador at Rome might attend the conference to report its proceedings to this government.

Pay As You Leave Plan

BEND, Oregon, Mar. 9.—That the "pay as you leave" plan adopted here Monday by two motion picture theatres is resulting in bigger houses and at least as large revenue as formerly, was the declaration today of J. B. Sparks, manager of theatres. Many still pay at the old rate, a few pay less and practically none walk out without dropping some change in the box left at the door.

It is optional with each patron how much he shall pay, or whether he pays at all.

Radio Phones In New Home

PHILADELPHIA, PA., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The popularity of the radio telephone was reflected in an advertisement in newspaper today in which a local builder announced that the one million dollars worth of houses he is building "will be wired for radio telephone service."

"This will add greatly to the enjoyment of these new homes," the announcement said.

Salome Was A Tumbler

LONDON, Mar. 9.—Salome was an acrobatic tumbler, not a dancer of the modern ballet type, according to evidence laid before the Royal Archaeological Institute by George C. Drue, of Oxford. If his evidence is corroborated theologians, historians and others have long labored under a misapprehension as to Salome's first claim to fame. All the old illuminated parchments and carvings show her posing as an acrobat and not as a dancer, Mr. Drue declares.

Travels Far To Wedding

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, Mar. 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Miss Mary Conley, a trained nurse, formerly of Anaconda, Montana, is traveling 1,700 miles, 700 miles of the distance by dog team on her way from Alaska to Juneau, where in April she will wed Carl Thiele, acting governor of Alaska. Mr. Thiele is the executive in the absence of Governor Boone, who is in Washington.

Dog Occupies Hospital Cot

CHICAGO, March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A mongrel street dog with a broken leg occupied a cot at the American Hospital here today. A chauffeur and a policeman picked him up in the street last night and as the humane associations were closed for the night, the hospital agreed to the policeman's plea to take the dog. It is believed to be the first time in the history of Chicago hospitals that a dog occupied a cot in one of them.

Heavy Screens For Jury

ST. PAUL, MINN., March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Heavy screens hereafter will be used to partition off the jury in the county jail here when both men and women comprise a jury forced to spend a night there. Sheriff Wagener said today, following complaints made by members of a mixed jury, who spent two nights in the jury room last week with only hastily improvised curtains separating the cots occupied by the five men from those used by the seven women.

PLANNING BIG THINGS FOR DRESS-UP-WEEK

Dress-Up Week, or the usual Spring Style Show, will be picturesquely observed from Tuesday, March 14 to Saturday, March 18.

These dates were recently decided at a meeting of the Retail Merchants' Division of the Chamber of Commerce. A change in the usual plans this time provides for the expenditure of the usual prize money for advertising purposes in the local and nearby town papers. The fact that it is Dress-Up Week or Spring Show Week will be carried to the nearby communities through well-planned advertising matter in the newspapers and on special placards designed for window displays. The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors had authorized an expenditure of $150 for advertising purposes. This campaign will start at once.

In the past Style Show or Dress-Up Week has been a big success but this year the committee in charge hopes to make it a bigger and better success by having more merchants take part.

So far the committee in discussing plans for the Style Show with merchants have found the dealers will cooperate in making the event the biggest affair of this kind ever held here.

Dress-Up Week does not refer only to getting up yourself but also means a time to dress up the home and one's surroundings. It is the time of year when Nature is making a change in her dress when Dame Fashion is introducing all that is new in apparel for the person and home. It is the spirit of the season and all are asked to join in celebrating.

On Monday, March 13, the windows will be draped when the artists will put in their best displays. On Tuesday evening at a given hour the windows will be uncovered. A band will be engaged by the committee to give concerts in the business section of the city on the opening night of Dress-Up Week. Big crowds are expected to throng the streets to inspect displays that will be made not only on Tuesday night but all week.

Will Talk To N. & W. Men About Athletics

A big meeting for all employees of the N. & W. will be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7:30, and will be addressed by Dr. H. F. Kellenberg of New York City. Dr. Kellenberg is here in the interests of athletics and competition in sports by the men of the various N. & W. divisions. He will hold a conference with local railroad officials this afternoon. Music at the meeting this evening will be furnished by the Novelty Sextette.

Purpera Granted Reprieve

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Upon representations of Common Pleas Judge Dan B. Cull and Assistant Prosecutor James T. Cassidy, of Cleveland, that testimony of Sam Purpera, who was to have died in the electric chair at the Ohio penitentiary early Friday morning, is needed in the appeal case of Dominio Benigno, also sentenced to be executed, Governor Davis late yesterday granted Purpera, who claims to be but 18 years old, a 60 day reprieve. Earlier in the day the governor announced he would not intervene. Both Purpera and Benigno were convicted for participation in the Sly-Fanner pay roll robbery and hold-up at Cleveland.

The governor said justice in the case demanded that Purpera be reprieved in order that he be available as a possible witness in the appeal case and so that the state be not deprived of evidence to maintain Benigno's guilt.

Many Italian societies have urged the governor to commute Purpera's death sentence.

Rheumatism at 60

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight. The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she can't do the common round, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disturbs the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not get out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S. S. S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

RAGGED clothes flapping as he walked; rusty gun over shoulder; his long white beard the prey of every vagrant breeze he made his way painfully through the town he once had known so well, while at his heels the entire village mocked and hooted.

The splendid artistry of Thomas Jefferson was never more perfectly disclosed than in his exquisite handling of this one situation—just one of the many big dramatic moments with which Washington Irving's age-old classic is studded.

Only once in a while does such a picture as "Rip Van Winkle" come to the screen. And so, of course, you can't afford to miss it.

Farewell Reception Tonight

This evening the members of the First Presbyterian congregation will give a reception to Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Boyd who will leave this city next Monday for their new home in Kansas City where Rev. Boyd will take the pastorate of a church. Rev. and Mrs. Boyd have made many friends in Portsmouth since coming here and the invitation to attend the farewell reception this evening is extended to all their friends who wish to attend as well as the members of the First Presbyterian church and Sunday school who regret to see their pastor leave the church here, although they are glad to congratulate him on his larger work in Kansas City. The reception this evening will begin at seven-thirty and continue until nine o'clock.

Ten Get Citizenship Papers

Judge Thomas at a naturalization hearing in Common Pleas court Wednesday afternoon granted full citizenship papers to ten applicants claiming five different countries as their places of birth. The petitions of four others were continued to give the applicants further opportunity to study the form of government of their adopted country. The successful applicants who were sworn in by Clerk of Courts Edward Cunningham were: Louis Miller, Bavaria, Highland avenue; Edward Munson, Holland, 1823 Walker street; Emanuel Nephil, Italy, 618 John street; Vincenzo Tosi, Italy, 1740 Seventh street; Ernest Broschi, Italy, 306 West avenue, New Boston; Michael Donatello, Italy, 1825 Walker street; Andrew Valos, Greece, 422 Chillicothe street; Heinrich Carson Heiners, Germany, Scholfield; Mack Lang, Germany, 324 Pointe street; and Herman Joller, Germany, 725 Sixth street. The petitions of George Bergman, Milton Partridge and Johanne Ernst were dismissed on account of change of residence of the three applicants. Examiner Edward Kennedy, of Cincinnati, was present and represented the government at the hearing.

CAUGHT WITH WET GOODS; FINED

Caught with the goods on them, two men hailing from Lewis county, Kentucky, giving their names as Edward Bush and Robert Madden, were taken into custody Wednesday night by Officer Neal of New Boston, at Star Yard, and on being taken before Spire J. L. Rieley the prisoners were committed under charges of possessing liquor. They were fined $100 and costs and in default of payment were sent to the county jail. It is claimed that the men have been in the habit of taking orders for liquor in that vicinity and then delivering it, and this led the officer to get busy. When searched the pair had about a half gallon each of "moon" in bottles, secured about their clothes, Officer Neal says.

cathartics—
of constipation?

DID it ever occur to you that the cathartic you take to relieve constipation is the cause of your trouble?

Yet when a number of doctors were discussing this almost universal complaint one of them said: "Probably one of the most frequent causes of constipation is the indiscriminate use of cathartics." For years physicians have tried to persuade people to give up laxatives and to eat corrective foods instead.

It is now known that Fleischmann's Yeast is a food which makes the use of cathartics unnecessary. Because of its freshness it helps the intestines eliminate waste matter.

People who are adding Fleischmann's Yeast to their daily diet find that their body functions are kept normal and regular. Eat 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals every day. Place a standing order with your grocer. He will deliver Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—In reference to the letter of the "Worried Wife" I wish to state that it has caused a great misunderstanding between my husband and myself, which I am particularly anxious at this time to avoid. We were married almost two years ago and got started wrong in that I gave him cause to lose confidence in me, and have never tried to recently to regain his confidence. The letter in question falls in some respects to things that have caused us trouble. So when my husband asked me if I knew anything about the letter, and I told him no, it was plain to be seen that he was not sure. Kindly state in the next issue of The Times if this writing corresponds with the other, which will be sufficient evidence that I was not the author of the other one.

PARTICULARLY ANXIOUS
The letter did not come from you, I suppose, there are hundreds of copies "in the same boat" so it is foolish for your husband, or any other man to think that the letter came from his wife, even if what she said did apply to things pertaining to his marital happiness.

Dear Dolly—I want your advice on this question: Over two years ago I was with a very nice man who seemed to be crazy about me, but he never asked me to marry him. He talked around about marriage and asked about others getting married and often remarked that he wished he were settled down, but he never proposed to me. He went with me for a long time but I was young and rather independent and did not seem to pay much attention to him, so he quit me. Now I am getting at an age where I would like to get settled, but his man doesn't go with me now and doesn't seem to care a bit for me. I am crazy about him and don't think I can ever love anyone else. I did not appreciate him when I had him and I would give anything to get him back now. I never knew how much I needed for him until we quit going together. He was so nice to me and always treated me so nice, Dolly, he is in my mind continually. I have tried to forget him but it's no use, I don't feel like it is my place to run after him so I wish you would tell me some other way to get him back.

THANK YOU!
If he doesn't come back after he reads this letter, you might as well make up your mind to forget him, however, if you ever meet him, and he is not keeping company with any other girl, you might invite him to call some evening. Outside of that I don't know of anything else you can do.

Dear Dolly—I received a nice box of candy the other day, and it had the address of the boy I go with on the outside of the box but he denies he sent the candy. I believe he did send the candy. Do you think he cares for me, and what do you think of him for denying he sent me such a nice present.

ANXIOUS KID
I think if he sent his perfectly good money for a box of candy he would want you to know he sent it. Perhaps some one else sent it and put his address on it for a joke. Don't let them kid you like that.

Dear Miss Wise—I have been reading in your column where so many young men write you about the way the girls in this city dress. I would like to say a few words to these men. One of them said he could stand on the street for quite a while and all the girls that would pass would have so much paint and powder on their faces you couldn't tell what they looked like. Now, Dolly, what business have they standing on the corners for hours and making remarks about girls as they pass. Dolly, I think if they were out looking for a job instead of standing on the streets they wouldn't see so many of these girls. Don't you? And as for making remarks about girls as they pass that one fellow wrote you if he had a clean mind and cared anything for a girl, he wouldn't be making remarks about her. I'm sure if he has a sister and cares anything for her he wouldn't want anyone to say anything about her and I think he ought to respect all girls, no matter what or who they are, don't you, Dolly? I have heard boys say, "It is hard to find a nice girl any more." I don't think they are looking for nice girls for there are as many nice girls here as there are any other kind if they would only look for them. And if they will notice there are as many girls that don't use paint and powder as the other kind. In regards to the European's letter, if American girls don't dress to suit him, and if the girls of his own country are so nice and dress right, then I think the place for him is back in Europe where he belongs, for we don't need any one criticizing the American girls. There are too many boys from this country ready to do that. But let me tell him this, if he will look around a little I think he will find just as nice a girl in this country as he does in Europe or any other country; and they're not all painted dolls either. Now, Dolly, please publish this for I want people to know Portsmouth boys are not all angels, and I want the boys to know the painted dolls they pass on the streets are not all there are in Portsmouth.

Members of Mrs. Howard Sellards' Sunday school class will be entertained at a winter picnic to be held this evening at six o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. F. Amberg, 1236 Seventeenth street. The assistant hostesses for the evening will be: Mrs. John Flood, Mrs. J. O. Carlin, Mrs. John A. Miller, Mrs. Elmer Amberg, Mrs. O. D. Donaldson, and Mrs. Arthur Oakes.

Of interest to friends in this city is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Hoch, a niece of Mrs. Kate Loft, and Lester Rouch of Oak Hill, which was solemnized yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niedeum, Stockdale, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The marriage service was read by Rev. Christian White, while Miss Edna Maltzoff had the closing prayer. The bride was very sweet and girlish in a white embroidered cotton crepe, and wore a corsage of lilies of the valley. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Jennie Jones who also sang "O Pious Me" preceding the service. Miss Margaret Hoch and Ralph Loft of Portsmouth were the attendants.

A three course lunch followed the ceremony, and Mr. Rouch and his bride left for a week's wedding trip to Springfield and Troy. They will reside on a farm near Oak Hill.

Among the Portsmouth people attending the wedding were, Mrs. Kate Loft, Ralph, Lawrence and Dorothy Loft, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bamer.

Miss Pearl Marie Long, Solotville and William Triggs, Portsmouth, were quietly married at three o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Rev. Charles Reinhard of Solotville. The young couple was married at 7:30 o'clock, and immediately after the ceremony went to their newly furnished home on Fourth street.

The bride previous to her marriage was employed as bookkeeper for the Columbus meat market. Mr. Triggs is a luncheon.

Mrs. George Nagelsdorf, Moulton Place, extended the hospitality of her home to members of the Merry-makers' Club and several guests yesterday afternoon. The time was spent with needlework and social chat, and at five o'clock a dainty two course lunch was served.

The following club members enjoyed the afternoon: Mrs. R. C. Holbrook, Mrs. George Bonham, Mrs. C. H. Sampson, Miss Marcella Tripp, Mrs. Charles Ziegler, Mrs. Norman Adams, Mrs. S. J. Bowen and Mrs. A. B. Prior. Guests were Miss Thelma Fisher of Columbus and Mrs. Charles Fisher of this city.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Miss Marcella Tripp, Second street. Members received clever little shamrock favors before adjourning.

The Kings' Daughters and Sons of Trinity Church will hold a social session tomorrow evening in the church parlors. All members are cordially invited.

M. Lehman, 310 Chaffin street is in Boston, Mass., on a business mission.

The Loyal Women's class of the Grandview Christian church will meet in business and social session tomorrow evening at seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jack Burns, 2219 Vinton avenue. Every member is urged to be present and visitors are welcome.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Literary Club will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Sellards, 424 Waller street, with Mrs. R. F. Royce and Mrs. George Smith as assistant hostesses. The following program will be presented:

Art As Taught in the Portsmouth High School, Mrs. Irene O'Brien.
Talk—"The Nutrient Value of Foods," Miss Lulu Summers.
Criticisms—Mrs. J. T. McCormick.
Piano Selections—"Prelude" in C Sharp Minor—Rachmaninoff; "Two Larks"—Leschetzky—Mrs. Chris. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hardy of 1021 Spring street, entertained at 12 o'clock luncheon in honor of the marriage of their granddaughter, Mrs. Marjorie Baker, McCordy, and also the second wedding anniversary of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hardy, of Sixth street. Those served were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker and son, Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McCordy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cpp, Jr., and Mrs. Alice Kinney. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skaggs of Portsmouth and Mrs. Ada Hardy Snyder of Chicago, London Register.

The presentation of Gail's "Holy City" next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the First Church will be in the nature of a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Boyd, being a complimentary presentation by the Ladies' Mission, in recognition of the interest and support given by both the Boyds to Portsmouth music. A superb chorale will support a splendid array of Portsmouth's best known soloists, under the direction of Foster Krake. This sacred cantata was delightfully rendered several months ago, and its reputation will be much appreciated.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public, especially lovers of music, and friends of the Boyds, to hear "The Holy City" at the vesper hour of three o'clock next Sunday.

HATS ON A SLANT

BY MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK.—Loath to forsake that charming off-the-face line, designers of the new hats are modifying it for this season's millinery. Modified as it is, however, practically every hat, silk, metal cloth or straw, slants slightly away from the face.

The Milan straw hat with its spear-like ornaments is quite tailored, an excellent suggestion for the woman who spends the greater part of her day in a trim suit.

Crepe maroon, soft and lustrous, is used for the fashioning of the padded hat with its swagging side drape. The loveliness of the material is the hat's only claim to ornamentation.

The aigrette mounts of the black satin model suggest a sparkling fountain an illusion enhanced by the twinkling of a profusion of jet beads below.

Mrs. J. R. Hilling's Sunday school class will give an entertainment, "The Beantown Choir" at the Lucasville Community Hall, Friday evening at seven o'clock.

Miss June Chandler, a student at Ohio Wesleyan University, arrived last night for a several weeks' visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Chandler, Washington street.

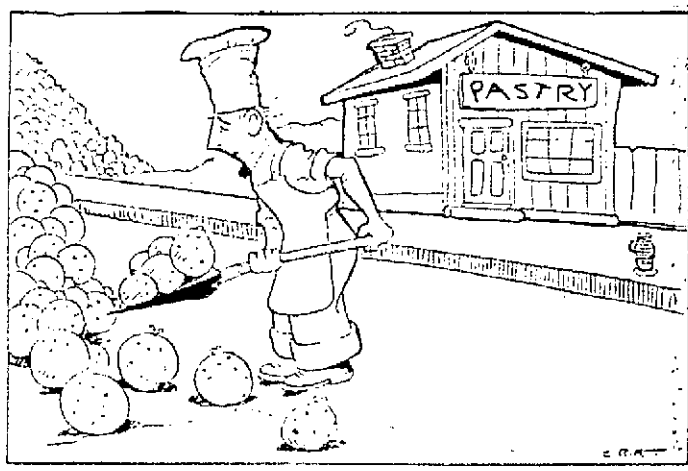

Miss Georgia Chabot has returned from Cincinnati where she was called last week by the illness of her father.

Mrs. Ralph Ruggles will be hostess to members of the Joseph Spencer Chapter, D. A. R., next Monday evening. The assistant hostesses will be Mrs. R. F. Royce, Mrs. Clara Hurr, Mrs. Ralph Legler and Miss Edith Royce.

Miss Edna Kuntz and Russell A. Bodmer, both of the West Side, were quietly married by Rev. C. E. Chandler at his residence yesterday afternoon. The single ring ceremony was used, and there were no attendants. The young couple will reside in Portsmouth.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The pastry man used to have his shop near here

THE rubber mountain went on with his story:

"Yes, I ought to be called plum pudding mountain because that's what I'm made of. The pastry man used to have his shop near here, and when he made plum puddings that weren't good he dumped 'em on this spot. After a while they grew together and then I became me. I really am rubber now, but don't talk to me of indignation, I've got all the indignation I saved other people who didn't eat me."

Several hours were devoted to sewing for the Girls' Community Club and the Hopalong Home, at a meeting of the members of the Craft Twigs Club held with Mrs. Frank Adams, Baird avenue, yesterday afternoon. There were no guests other than the club members, and at five o'clock a dainty tea was served by the hostess.

The Portsmouth delegates who will leave tomorrow to attend the convention of the World Wide Guild to be held this weekend at Toledo are Misses Carrie Sowers, Lucille Curant, Iuz Stander, Emma Myers and Mrs. Arthur Shankweiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houdstadt, 1223 McConnell avenue, have been entertaining as their guest for the past ten days, Mrs. W. M. Baisden, of Detroit, Mich.

"Well," said Nick, "Nancy and I have our Green Shoes, so we'll just wish ourselves down on the other side. We'll not walk on you any more."

"Oh, no, you can't," replied the mountain quickly. "Not here. Who ever would get to the Kingdom of the Pudding? You must say he has walked over the Seven Mountains, and who ever would get to the Kingdom of the Kersknots must tell the gate keeper that he has walked through the Seven Valleys. I tell you what, I'll hold my breath until you get down on the other side. But before you go I'll give you a word of warning about the next mountain. It's made of glass, and for every step you will slide two steps down. The only way you can get over is to go backwards."

"First jump up backwards as far as you can, after that every step you take will carry you two steps in the other direction. The mountain won't know the difference."

"Thank you," said Nancy. "Then we'd better be going."

The mountain held his breath and the Twins scrambled up to his top and down the other side as fast as they could go. But even after they had put a long distance between them and the ticklish old mountain they could hear him hic, hinc, and hic, hinc, and hic, and shaking so hard the whole earth trembled.

Your Hair Needs Palm and Olive Oils for health and beauty

The coupon which appears in this advertisement entitles you to a 15-cent trial bottle of Palmolive Shampoo free when presented to your dealer. It is offered to prove to you how this blend of palm and olive oils will transform your hair.

How it makes it glossy, how it makes it soft, how it makes it beautifully fluffy——without a trace of the harshness, dryness, and injurious brittleness which usually follows shampooing.

This 15-cent trial bottle contains a generous quantity—enough to shampoo luxuriously the heaviest hair. Present it at once—this is a one-week offer. If your regular dealer can't supply you call on another.

Palm and Olive Oils

The softening effects of olive oil are responsible for gloss and softness. It produces a mild penetrating lather which softens and relaxes the scalp and enters roots and hair cells.

The accumulation of dirt and oil is thoroughly dissolved. Dandruff is penetrated and removed.

Palm oil contributes richness and body to this lather and makes it lasting. Both oils have been famous since Cleopatra's day for their softening, relaxing qualities which no others possess.

Combats dandruff

Dandruff, which doctors call seborrhea and say causes most hair troubles, is not removed by most shampoos.

The dry, oily scales are impervious to usual cleansing. It only makes them more powdery and flaky.

But you must be got rid of some way or you may lose your hair. Dandruff packs around the roots and interferes with nutrition. This makes even the normal secretion found on every scalp dangerous to hair health.

The softening, penetrating lather produced by the combination of palm and olive oils loosens the scales and dislodges them from the scalp. The delicate organism of each hair is free for healthy activity.

Present the coupon at once for the free 15-cent trial bottle. For one shampoo will prove that all we say is true. You will never be satisfied with other ways of shampooing once you learn what Palmolive will do.

CHAMBLIN'S FATE UP TO SUPREME COURT

Attorney Theo. K. Funk stated today that on Friday he would file a motion for leave in petition in the case of Roy C. Chamblin, who is condemned to die in the electric chair on the morning of March 24.

If the petition is sustained, the Supreme Court will review Chamblin's case, but if it is turned down, it will mean that he has availed himself of the last avenue to escape paying the death penalty in the electric chair.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY ELKS

Annual election of officers and members of the Elks lodge No. 11, O. E. K. No. 154 Wednesday evening. The officers elected were as follows:

George Ahrend, Secretary—Otto E. Maier, Treasurer—George E. Kricker, Tyler—Thomas B. Nichols, Delegate to Grand Lodge—Floyd C. Fuller, Alternate—Horace L. Smith, Trustee—Orin B. Oakes. After the election of these officers had been made unanimous District Deputy James Heust of Columbus Lodge No. 37 was introduced and made a splendid address. He was greatly impressed with the manner in which two candidates were initiated last night and was fervent in his commendation of the officers. He says he found the lodge in splendid shape, growing and prosperous. Mr. Heust made a splendid impression and was given much applause as he sat down. At the business session it was decided to re-equip the dining room in the club and operate it as soon as possible.

Rosaries Blessed

By Pope

NEW YORK, March 9.—(By the Associated Press)—Two hundred rosaries, personally blessed by Pope Pius XI, are Lenten gifts brought by John A. O'Dwyer, of Toledo, Ohio, supreme director of the Knights of Columbus, who has just returned from Rome.

"Pope Pius has a good American handshaker," said Mr. O'Dwyer, the first American layman to be granted an audience with the new pontiff. "He speaks English fluently, and knows American geography."

THE IRON MARKET

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Mar. 9.—The Iron Trade Review today says: "Price advances by independent steel makers at Pittsburgh and Chicago accompanied by rising production and buying interest in many quarters, point to a situation in iron and steel that is growing more encouraging each week. Present outlook of the mills are several times larger than six months ago and all around, conditions are the best in 12 to 15 months. While the threatened coal strike is having some effect in causing producers to move carefully in putting on additional blast furnace capacity, and to this extent is tightening the situation, this factor is not proving a major stimulus to buying. Current business continued based mainly on requirements in iron."

The week has witnessed the withdrawal of such low prices as 1.30c to 1.35c on plates, slabs and bars which certain aggressive interests recently had swept the market and had gathered in a large tonnage. Producers who did not follow the recent lower quotations continue to name their former schedule. Therefore, whether the general market now is to experience a genuine advance is problematical but the undertone undeniably is stronger.

Steel ingot output in February was at the annual rate of 25,810,000 tons compared with that of 22,640,000 tons in January, and was the largest shown since February 1921. This represents 61.5 per cent of the maximum yearly production of steel ingots which was in 1917. Pig iron showed a further gain in daily output from 58,000 in January to 58,220 tons. Production now is at the highest point in 12 months. Due to the shorter month, the total figure for February was 1,630,180 as compared to 1,645,840 tons in January. The number of furnaces in blast at the end of January was 120, a gain of 12 in the month, or of 70 in the past seven months. The Steel corporation is producing steel in excess of 60 per cent. The Gary works this week reached a production of over 70 per cent, by far the best in a year. Independent open-hearth works in the Youngstown district are at 75 per cent.

For the first time in many months, or since Nov. 23, the composite market average of the Iron Trade Review shows a slight advance. The average this week is $22.86 compared with $22.81 last week, $22.87 for February and $23.45 for January.

Railroad car orders in February amounted to 14,520 bringing the total for the first two months to approximately 26,000. This represents as many cars as were ordered in the whole year of 1921.

Joe Beats It

Joe Florio, Italian who has been about town for some time, was picked up by police Wednesday night for loitering and in Municipal court Thursday when he declared that it would require him but a short time to get out of town Judge McCall told him to go.

More Land Is Optioned For Game Preserve On West Side

Deputy Game Protector E. D. Voorhees stated Thursday that he had optioned the Elliott, Schaefer and Simcox farms below Turkey Creek on the West Side and they would be added to the new game preserve to be established there. "This will bring all the farms in the preserve together and the deal for all of the ground will now be closed at once," Mr. Voorhees said today.

The preserve proper is to contain over 16,000 acres of West Side land.

Knight Attacks Bonus Bill; Scores Legion Head

WASHINGTON, March 9.—An attack on the soldiers' bonus bill was made in the house today by Representative Knight, Republican, Akron, Ohio, who announced he would vote against it as indefensible from either the economic or patriotic standpoint.

Mr. Knight declared, however, that efforts to defeat the measure would be futile.

"We shall not only fail in our opposition," he added, "but we will be misunderstood, so far as it becomes possible for a class to organize and dominate congress that there will be few votes cast against the measure."

To Hold Court In Cleveland

Under special assignment of Chief Justice C. T. Marshall of the Ohio Supreme court, Judge J. S. Thomas will leave Sunday for Cleveland to hold court for a couple of weeks. The local jurist is being sent to Cleveland to assist in relieving a congested docket in the Cuyahoga county courts.

Judges Benner Jones of Jackson, and Judge Will P. Stephenson, of West Union, will probably occupy the local bench during the absence of Judge Thomas.

The case of the State against Edward Graf, indicted for non-support, was continued off the docket Thursday when the defendant appeared in court and acquainted Judge Thomas with the facts in the case.

Graf told the court that he had been making substantial monthly payments towards the support of his four children and indicated a desire to continue but requested the court to fix the amount and in the future he will pay $50 a month through the office of the clerk of courts.

Lawson Nabbed; Fined $200

Don Lawson, 33, was the native son of a man living from Kentucky who was picked up in the East End Wednesday night by Officers Downs and locked up on a liquor charge, pleaded guilty to possessing moonshine when arraigned in Municipal court Thursday and Judge McCall passed him a fine of $200 and costs. Having no funds, Lawson languishes at the county jail.

When arrested Lawson had several bottles of liquor in his pockets and the officers claimed he had been passing on the "moon" as a sample of his product with a view of taking orders later.

Moore Indictment Is Nollied

Oscar E. Moore, former local real estate agent and drug detective, who was tried in Common Pleas court in several weeks ago under an indictment for a forged obtaining money, after a brief absence in connection with the sale of an option on real estate, left Thursday for California where he will be employed on a ranch.

The indictment against Moore was nollied by reason of doubt as to whether the offense charged constituted a crime.

Names Of Local Citizens Who Have Passed On Drawn From Cincinnati Jury Wheel

The names of two former well known Portsmouth citizens, J. J. Spencer and John Brandel, Sr., were among those drawn for United States Court petit jury service at Cincinnati Wednesday. Mr. Brandel passed away last June and Mr. Spencer last fall.

John Dyer, Jr., of Second street, was the only Portsmouth man drawn for the grand jury service. U. S. District Court, April term. Both grand and petit jurors are ordered to report to Judge John W. Baker, Portsmouth.

All Enjoying Trip

President Harding and the members of his party, which in addition to Mrs. Harding, Secretary Christian and Brigadier General Sawyer, his personal physician, includes Attorney General Daugherty, Speaker Gillett of the house, and Under Secretary of State Fletcher. All appeared to be enjoying the trip immensely. The president intended to go out for a round of golf when he reached St. Augustine this afternoon.

May Go On Household

While his vacation plans for the week had not been announced early today, it was understood Mr. Harding might take a trip down the Florida coast several days in the guest of Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, on the latter's household.

Visits City

Dr. J. E. Gordon, of Olway, was a business visitor to the city Thursday.

$400,000 Whiskey Cargo Is Seized

NEW YORK, March 9.—The American schooner Victor, loaded with more than 3,000 cases of American and Scotch whiskey, whose value was estimated by prohibition agents at nearly $400,000, was seized by customs inspectors in the lower bay today and tied up at the battery, pending court action.

Blizzard In Texas

AMARILLO, TEX., March 9.—The north wind and heavy snow today is in the grip of one of the worst blizzards known in recent years, three feet of snow having been reported at Spearman, the terminus of the Spearman branch of the Santa Fe railroad.

Spearman is cut off from the outside world so far as transportation is concerned. Loss of livestock is feared.

Attacks Four-Power Treaty

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Protesting the four-power Pacific treaty, Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, in renewing senate discussion of the pact today, declared it would not promote peace "but on the contrary will invite the formation of rival alliances and lead to great harm."

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Challenged from his own side of the chamber to reveal to the senate the origin of the four-power Pacific treaty, Senator Underwood of Alabama, the Democratic leader, and a member of the American arms delegation, told his colleagues on the senate floor today that he knew few of the details of the negotiations as he was absent from Washington while they were in progress.

Government

Joint meetings such as those of the anthracite operators and miners called for New York City, March 15, gave to each side an opportunity to go into every phase of the disputed factors and can only result in better understanding.

The course suggested by Secretary Davis is only an expression of the earnest conviction of the public, as is evidenced by scores of editorials in the leading newspapers of the country, that such a meeting is held in accordance with a previous understanding the two sides to the coal situation have not discharged the obligations resting upon them.

The government has no desire to interfere unduly, but having the interest of the employers and employees in mind, it also has a duty to safeguard the interests of the people who will be seriously affected by the suspension of coal mining. Secretary Davis can not see why in the interests of common sense the two sides to the coal controversy can not get together and adjust their differences and save the country from the costly results of the strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 9.—By the Associated Press. President John I. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, communicating on Secretary of Labor Hughes' statement, declared the miners "have been ready and now are ready to meet with the operators at any time and place to negotiate a new agreement that will avert a suspension of operations in the coal industry."

Consecration Services At Terminal Revival

Last night was consecration night at the Terminal Church. After the sermon the Christian people gathered about the altar for prayer and renewed consecration of their lives to God, asking Him to use them to lead their friends and loved ones to Jesus. This service brought new inspiration to the Christian folks and we expect to see many brought to Jesus because His people have given themselves completely to Him for service.

The subject of the sermon last night was "The Biggest Job in the World" from the text "Now and then are we ambassadors for Christ as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." 2 Cor. 5:20.

"Christians have the biggest job in the world because they are the representatives of God Almighty. Himself. Our job is to show the world what God is like, to act in His stead in inviting sinners to be reconciled to Him, and to be His agents in carrying out His work of setting up His kingdom in the world. God has faith in us and believes we will truly represent Him. Will we prove worthy of His trust?

"We cannot rightly represent Him unless we are fully consecrated to Him. He cannot use us until we are all His, and His will is placed before self. Whenever we can say to God, 'I'll do anything you ask me to do,' then He will use us to win to Him those who are praying for."

Services tonight at 7:15. A good song service and special music. Come and bring your friends. Subject tonight, "Sin and its results."

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

Mrs. Clarence Nodder will sing "The Waters of Babylon." Howells' masterpiece, at the morning service in Second Presbyterian church Sunday, March 12th.

In the evening Mrs. W. F. Quinn will sing.

Miss Anna Cramer the organist, will play numbers requested in the Music Memory contest Sunday. The numbers are "Barcarolle" from the "Tales of Hoffman" by Jacques Offenbach; and "The Swan" by Camille Saint-Saens.

In the afternoon the church every-member canvass will be held. The houses of the church will be visited by teams of men in an effort to raise money enough to meet a budget for the next year's work, which has been increased over last year to allow extended religious activities.

The canvassers will banquet at the church tonight at which time pep will be dispensed.

U. B. SUNDAY SCHOOL CONTEST

The triangular Sunday school contest between the local U. B. Sunday school and the Fifth Avenue, Columbus, and Circleville schools began last Sunday morning and will continue until the last Sunday of June. An arrangement is made whereby the attendance at each school is reported by telephone each Sunday morning and the results announced at the close of the morning worship in each church.

Last Sunday the local school had an attendance of 280, Circleville, 254, and Fifth Avenue 260. Both the Columbus and Circleville churches outnumber the local church in membership, the Fifth Avenue church claiming a membership of between six and seven hundred and the Circleville church between five and six hundred while the local membership is right around the four hundred mark.

Sunday morning representatives of the three schools will meet at Circleville to plan the details of the campaign and the indications are that the Circleville people have extended their efforts to the farthest corner of Pickaway plains rambling up hundreds of new scholars to prove to Mr. Fred Laramy, representative of the local school, that the Portsmouth Brethren have tackled a big proposition. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Things Seen In Portsmouth

Elderly maiden lady wearing a tight skirt trying to climb into an automobile on Gallia street. After vainly attempting to mount, the step the lady rolled her skirt up until she was able to take a reasonably step. She had to repeat the operation before she could alight from the machine, when she reached her home on Eighth street.

Man eating whole pie in local restaurant.

Three men rolling the bones on a promenade down town corner.

Man calling up garage man to start his car, which was "gasolineless."

Five women having a chatfest on Eighth street. Everybody was being panned, outdoor knockers' club as it were.

RILEY BROWN RETURNS TO THIS CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Brown, and daughter Mable, after an absence of 28 years have returned to Portsmouth to again make their home here. They have been living in Cincinnati, Ky. Mr. Brown, who is 82 years old is one of the pioneer settlers of this city and will be remembered by many of the older residents. His father, the late Adley Brown, was one of the pioneer druggists of this city. Riley Brown for court, Ky. MRS. TATMAN'S HENS "SOME LAYERS"

Writing from her home at Struthers, near Youngstown, Mrs. Lucius G. Tatman, a former Portsmouth resident, says:

Editor Times: I have read with some interest, in The Times which is a welcome visitor to us daily, the egg records of some of the Scotch county farmers reported therein. It must be admitted that these are pretty good records and pretty hard to beat. However I believe my flock of Single Comb Rhode Island Reds has them beaten. I have 10 hens which made a record of 802 eggs for January and 727 for the month of February. The January record was made despite the fact that the temperature in this part of Mahoning county ranged around eight and ten degrees below zero for several days. I might say that we used artificial light on them, which I believe adds to their efficiency.

Respectfully yours, MRS. L. G. TATMAN.

Whole Family Ill

The home of Roy Weaver, 817 Chillieth street, has been and still is a small sized hospital. Mr. Weaver, his wife and three children, Paul, Vinetta and Wilma are all ill with serious attacks of grip. All five have been bedfast and relatives from Eads were called in to wait upon them. A nurse has now been engaged to look after the family of patients who were reported some better today.

RALLIES FROM SERIOUS OPERATION

Herbert Roph of 513 Third street is a patient in Hempstead hospital who had burst and he was in a serious condition, but has rallied.

Rosemount Stars Vs. Peebles

Saturday night at 8 o'clock in Wilhelmette hall the Rosemount Stars will clash with the first Peebles team which defeated the local quintet at Peebles a couple of weeks ago. This time the Rosemount stars expect to gain sweet revenge.

The terms are evenly matched and a hot game is expected.

A certain raiser will be staged by the Rosemount leader girls and the East End Specials, a girls' five from the east end of the city. This game will start at 7 o'clock.

Insist upon Kellogg's the original Corn Flakes

~they're wonderful

"See, Maize, I hope you don't have any more of these while we're eating Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 'cause I like Kellogg's so much that the rest will get away!"

Kellogg flavor and Kellogg crispness are so different that there can be no comparison between Kellogg's Corn Flakes and imitations.

Little folks quickly say, "Get Kellogg's, Mother—please," because Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Kellogg's are always so delicious that big bowls quickly disappear and eager little mouths appeal for more! And big folks appreciate the superiority of Kellogg's because their flavor is so inviting. Kellogg's are wonderful!

Insist upon Kellogg's—the kind in the RED and GREEN box that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

Entertainers Class

The members of the Kings' daughters' class of the M. E. church enjoyed a delightful time at the home of Mrs. W. E. Dole in South Oak Hill Monday evening. A splendid paper on "The Life of Jacob" had been prepared by Mrs. P. M. Petty, which was read by Mrs. J. V. Queen. A discussion followed, in which all the members took part. The subject for the next meeting will be "What it Means to be a Christian." At the close of the business session, the hostess served a delicious two-course lunch, of which sandwiches, sweet tomatoes, coffee, and fruit, were served. ## Taxes, Gas Question, Etc., Under Fire Of The Woman's Municipal League

The Woman's Independent Municipal League held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Tillie Davis on Gallia street.

Acute Indigestion For Over Two Years

"For over two years I suffered from acute indigestion," says Arthur L. Reeves, secretary of the Anti-Bulimic Food & Light Company, Ohio. "I frequently called in a physician but getting only temporary relief. Acting on the advice of a friend I took Dr. Ord's Stomach Remedy regularly until the first package was used up. I then procured another package of which I have taken only six capsules. I feel for a real or fancy condition of acid stomach or heartburn. For seven months now I have been entirely free from any attack of acute indigestion and can eat anything I want with no fear of bad results. In case of your stomach which is sometimes quite annoying, one dose will be found worth the price of the package. If the above statement of facts will help call the attention of other sufferers to the merits of Dr. Ord's Stomach Remedy. I shall be glad to have you use it." Signed Arthur L. Reeves.

THE OUTH LABORATORY CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

ing yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Tillie Davis on Gallia street. Several important subjects were discussed, among them being a proposed law for operations on both sexes, when afflicted with a transmissible disease; the local Detention House for Women; the high tax rate and the gas question.

Regarding the Detention House, the members decided that if there was more prevention there would be less need of detention; that the number of people and the amount of money it would take to equip and run a house of that kind would many times overbalance the benefit to the public and the detained.

The gas question was next taken up. The members decided that inasmuch as Ashland and Huntington paid only 21 cents per 1000 cubic feet for gas, and as our pipes and other equipment are already installed, our gas should be no higher than theirs, and that the city of Portsmouth had no quarrel with the Producing Company, but that all our troubles were with the distributing company, and that the city officials should urge the Utility Commission to so decide. Also that the local taxes are out of proportion to the services received and that there are too many offices and officials and that their salaries should be cut in proportion to other wage earners.

Girls' Boat Crew Formed; Boat Coming

Rowing is the latest form of athletics to be taken up by the Girls' Community Club, which is a very active organization these days.

A ten oar, 25 foot boat has been ordered and it will arrive here April 1. Then it will be seen skimming along on the bosom of the placid Ohio with ten girls manipulating the oars with perfect rhythm. To perfect this rhythm they are busy now taking rowing lessons and promise to be very proficient by the time the boat arrives. Mary Griffin will be the coxswain and she says a real crew is to have charge of the boat. The girls expect to derive keen pleasure from rowing.

"Public Generally Should Not Be Called Upon To Pay Railroad Rates Based On High Wages"

CHICAGO, March 9.—(By the Associated Press) The public generally, including wage earners in other industries, should not be called upon to pay transportation charges based on an inordinately high level of railroad wages, John G. Walther, executive secretary of the bureau of information for the eastern railroads, said today before the United States railroad labor board, which is considering the petitions of those railroads and other carriers, for wage reductions among railroad workers.

"It was natural," he said, "that the manufacturers and other representative of the shipping public should feel that as their industries had been undergoing the process of readjustment, and as the railroad industry was still operating on the basis of war time costs, plus the increase in the cost of their labor resulting from decisions of the labor board, that the railroad industry should also contribute toward the readjustment."

"The interests of the employees," he said, "are not opposed to the interests of the railroads I represent. The prosperity of these workers is interwoven with and dependent upon the success of the railroad business itself."

"Although the reduction in the cost of living from May 1, 1920, to July 1, 1921, was approximately twenty per cent, as indicated by government and other statistics, yet the reduction in wages effective July

Legacy Only A Myth, Clerk Tells Sheriff

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 9.—Harold Craig, 22-year-old bridegroom of four months, before his marriage told his sweetheart he soon was to become heir to $20,000. Recently he told of an approaching payment of $22,500 on the legacy. Tuesday afternoon he staggered into his Mill Valley home. There was a ragged bullet wound in his right shoulder. He said that he had been shot by a highwayman who took from him a $755 diamond ring and $1,500 in cash. Wednesday night he told Sheriff J. J. Keating of Marin county, according to that officer, that the hold-up was a myth and that with his own hand and his own revolver he had inflicted the wound to make the story stronger.

He told the sheriff his wife had become increasingly curious about the "legacy" since their marriage. Mrs. Craig said the description was not necessary to keep her love.

"It doesn't matter Harold," she said, "but why didn't you tell me the truth in the first place?" Craig is a clerk.

Has He Found A Cure For Asthma?

Simple Prescription Gives Instant Relief, Makes Breathing Easy

In New England, where bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other diseases of the throat and lungs are so prevalent, remarkably successful results are being reported following the use of a new form of treatment known as Oxalase. Oxalase is a harmless but powerful combination of curative essential oils concentrated and compressed into a small tablet. One of these tablets, slowly dissolved before going to bed, seems to have the effect of relieving the muscular constriction of the bronchial tubes, opening up the air passages and regulating atmospheric function. The tablets are potent, but breathe easily and naturally while lying down and to get a comfortable night's sleep.

So much interest has been shown that local druggists including Walworth, Druggists, Fisher & Streich, have secured a small supply and state that they are authorized to refund the money paid for the first package of Oxalase tablets here treatment not to give relief, Oxalase is present to take contains no harmful drugs and is no expensive. This makes their first an easy matter. Advertisement.

The smile on the face of a Dokey. The Fox on the crown of his head: Are the symbols of a soul that is happy

And a spirit that will never be dead. Interesting, entertaining and instructive was the work of members of Menutium Temple 217, Dramatic Order Knights of Klhassan when they held their eighth ceremonial Wednesday afternoon and evening in Castle Hall, Fourth and Washington streets, with several hundred in attendance.

This event was the Spring ceremonial of the organization, organized to furnish a safety valve for the release of the surplus energy that is a part of the makeup of all live wire Dokeys.

Wednesday, at 2:30, when the pilgrimage across the burning sands was begun the caravan was slightly smaller in numbers than anticipated, sickness preventing several from making the trip. As the caravan moved over the hot sands to Zen Zen's cooling spring, the reign of humor that runs through the ceremony was appreciated more and more, especially by those who formed the last class and who were now allowed the honor of escorting other comrades over the "silly" places.

In the hour the ceremonial work started until about 5:30 o'clock, the ritualistic work, dignified and worthy of the attention of all thinking men, kept the ceremonial degree team busy and it is needless to say the work furnished fun and laughter aplenty for those who were not members of the class.

After completion of the degree work, a lunch was served in the club room. The menu included: roast beef, brown gravy, potato salad, baked beans, hot rolls and coffee and ice cream.

The Dokey Orchestra made a big hit during the supper hour, entertaining the members with music. The orchestra which may take its place with the best in the city, is composed of Russell Ketter, first violin; H. H. Grier, second violin; J. E. Kahn, trombone; Fred Belmont, bass violin; Floyd Stearns, first trumpet; Joe Ross, second trumpet; Leslie Ketter, clarinet; and Herbert Kahn, piano; Joe Hladick, flute.

The features of the evening session were solos by Miss Jessie Mick and Miss Beatrice Stewart, accompanied on the organ by Miss Anna Cramer. Several selections were given during the work in the first degree, and the many members present were pleased with this new feature of the ceremonial.

This was the first occasion that any non-members were asked to take part in the observation of the Dokeys' big day, and future committees working along the same lines may include some fine attractions for coming ceremonials.

The class of candidates consisted of Herman London, B. V. Hancock, Ben F. Stewart, H. B. Ruel, Joseph Hladick and W. H. Culbertson.

The feast that carried out the initiatory work was chosen for the ceremonial and won commendation from visiting Dokeys for the manner in which they conferred the degree. The following members took part: Royal Vizier Theodore Bauer, Grand Emir William A. Hox, Sheik Carl A. Brand, Mahedi, Louis E. Yeager, Sathu George, Pressler, Sathu Louis Seeling, Samir Karl Karpus, Mokama Fred Larcamp, Master of Ceremonies George L. Culker, Manager of the Eighth Order John E. Kahn and his band of rip roaring brigands.

Visitors were present from Baltimore, Huntington, Roanoke, Des Moines, Columbus, Dayton, Newark, Trenton and Sciotoville.

SOCIETY

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. George Bender, attended the regular meeting of Group Five of Trinity church at the home of Mrs. Henry Amburg on Fifth street yesterday afternoon. After the regular business was disposed of, a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served. Mrs. A. A. Wyckoff assisted Mrs. Amburg during the afternoon.

Miss Katie Riley of Ashland, Ky., who has been in the city for the past ten days receiving medical treatment, will return home in a few days to take up her work as a practical nurse.

Miss Sadie Littlejohn, 625 Sixth street, left Wednesday for Terre Haute, Ind., to take a position as bookkeeper and stenographer in the office of the Vice Battery company.

Mr. William Atlas, manager of The Fashion, Gallia and Gay streets, announced today that his store would open "Dress Up Week" with a style show from seven thirty until nine o'clock next Tuesday evening. Eight charming young girls will display the garments in the big show window and also in the promenade to be arranged in the center of the store. A special orchestra will furnish music throughout the evening, and all the ladies in the city and vicinity are cordially invited to attend.

WELL KNOWN PRIEST AT ALL SAINTS'

The special minister at the seventy-third service at All Saints' church, tomorrow, Friday, evening will be the Rev. B. H. Reinheimer, executive secretary to the bishop and chapter of the diocese of Southern Ohio. Previous to his acceptance of his present important work, Mr. Reinheimer was first curate and afterwards rector of Christ church.

Natural And Revealed Law

When God created man, He implanted in his heart the natural law of right and wrong. "The Gentiles do by nature those things that are of the law—they show the work of the law written in their hearts." Rom. 2:14. Our reason is a general guide as to right and wrong. Our voice of conscience is the practical judge in particular cases. When sin and ignorance darkened man's mind, and they tried to excuse themselves from keeping the natural law, God translated the precepts of the natural law into the clear statements of the ten commandments. God gave the commandments to Moses on Mt. Sinai and Christ, our Lord confirmed them. All who believe in Christ as the Savior are obliged to observe the ten commandments.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—Mixed buying and selling orders made for continued conditions at the opening of today's stock market. Selected or pooled shares were active and generally higher, seasoned rails and industrials showing only nominal changes. Industrial paper, which was under marked pressure yesterday, made an initial recovery of one point. American Ice, Crumley Steel and several of the food specialties also advanced. New York, Chicago, and St. Louis (Nickel Plate) was amongst the rails, advancing 2 1/2 points. Further improvement in the steel trade was indicated by Bethlehem Steel's advance of prices, for bars, shapes and plates.

The market, however, showed the first hour behavior of the heaviness of stocks, but rallied before noon on the steady buying of specialties. These were chiefly featured by Davison Chemical, Allied Chemical, common and preferred, Virginia-Carolina Chemical, common and preferred, American Cotton Oil, common and preferred, American Linseed and American Agricultural Chemical at gains of 1 to 3 points. Aside from such stocks, pressed Steel, Car. Lina Locomotive, Harvester preferred and American Ice at gains of 1 to 2 points. The more prominent industrials and miscellaneous shares were neglected, times meat rails also held back and low of the junior rails were quoted. Victory 4 1/2 per cent notes made a new high record at 100 1/8. Call money opened at 4 1/4 per cent.

Fundamental conditions again favored the constructive side of the stock market today, but prices were noticeably unsettled on profit taking. Sales approximated 380,000 shares.

The closing was firm.

Observe Anniversary Of The Victory Of The Monitor Over Merrimac

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—Sixty years ago this morning the confederate iron clad Merrimac steamed away from her anchorage in Hampton Roads to attack what was expected to be a defenseless union fleet. Instead she met the Monitor, later called the "Yankee Chessbox on a Raft," and engaged in the first battle between ironclads, which changed the whole naval strategy of the world, and which has been described as the most momentous sea engagement ever fought.

Today, the cities of New York and Stockholm, Sweden, united in doing honor to the memory of John Ericsson who designed the Monitor.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH, NEWS

This evening at 7:30 a large and enthusiastic meeting of fathers and mothers, whose children are attending school, no doubt, will greet the distinguished educator, Sister Mary Richard, principal of Holy Redeemer school. This message to be delivered is one of interest and importance to parents. It will be a mutual pleasure and gain for principals and parents to become personally acquainted and earnest co-workers in the great work of education.

The Rosary, Stations of the Cross, and Benediction, Friday evening, at 7:15. The pastor is still receiving by mail and messenger generous pledges for the work of freeing the church. The congregation is justly rejoicing over the large number who so generously subscribed last Sunday.

Next Sunday the faithful body-guard of the Holy Redeemer church will also put themselves on glorious record with their fellow members. It is important to have the bulk of pledges on hand next Sunday, that all members will know how much money is needed for the improvement.

Chicago Grain And Provisions

CHICAGO, Mar. 9.—Although wheat opened higher in price today, increased selling soon led to declines. The initial gains were due to bullish constructions placed in government report of farm reserves of grain and to higher quotations at Liverpool.

Sellers based their action largely, however, on reports of snow in the southwest and details that high winds yesterday had done some serious harm. The opening, which varied from 3/4 to 1 1/2 higher, with May 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and July 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, was followed by declines to well below yesterday's finish, and then something of a rally.

Corn and oats paralleled the action of wheat. After opening 3/4 to 1 1/2 higher, May 6 1/2 to 6 3/4 and July 6 1/2 to 6 3/4, the corn market underwent a material setback.

The close was unsettled 2c to 6 1/2c net lower with May 1 3/4 to 1 3/4 and July 1 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Oats started a shade off to 3/4c advance, May 4 1/2 to 4 1/2 and then scored moderate general losses.

Lack of support weakened the provision market, despite higher quotations on hogs.

The market finished heavy 2 1/2c to 2 3/4c net lower with May 6 1/2 to 6 1/2.

The five men were so deeply engrossed in their plans that none of them noted a slender, dark-clad figure which hovered just beyond the wavering light of the lantern and which now drew closer.

"Let's go," suggested the captain briefly. "This is almost the time he usually sets forth for his deprecations, isn't it?"

They agreed and finally set off, walking in single file down the path which led to the shore. Behind them a soft voice exclaimed aloud in bewilderment: "The cave! But how could the man have found it?"

The face which Fay had seen at the window on the night of her arrival rose once more before her— that strange, feeling, wild-eyed face, in which there had been something weirdly, hauntingly familiar. All at once she stiffened and stood as rigid as a statue. The next instant she was off like a flying shadow in the wake of the manhunters.

To Captain Warren, trailing along on his crutches at the rear of the party, there came an odd sense that someone was behind him, trailing him in turn. He paused. Nothing but shadows met his gaze. Cursing himself for a nervous, weak, incompetent, he toiled painfully after the others.

He had never felt his inferiority as poignantly before as on that night, when there was excitement and adventure abroad.

It humiliated him to have them stop and wait for him, and he replied almost surlily to their inquiries as to how he was standing the pace.

That he was not standing it well was painfully evident to himself. The prolonged, unceasing effort was telling upon him. When at last he reached the boat-shaped rock the rest were far ahead.

He sank down upon the rock, panting and racked with pain, and it was then that that sensation of someone near came to him once more with overwhelming force. He straightened himself to look about, when a small hand was laid timidly on his shoulder and a soft voice spoke close to his ear.

"It's only I, captain," he gasped. "What are you doing here?"

"I followed because I thought I could help," she replied. "I was— was down by the garage when I heard you discussing your plans, and I could not avoid hearing. I think I know the place you are trying to find, but Frank is leading you all astray. Only myself and one other over know it. I think until this man unaccountably stumbled upon it in his wanderings."

"What is it— some old deserted shack?" The captain was rapidly forgetting his pain and fatigue in awaiting interest.

"I wish your head with a sad little reminiscent smile."

"There isn't even the remains of a human habitation along the shore line here for miles," she spoke very softly. "It is a cave, Captain Warren, not really a cave, you know, but just a natural fissure in the rock, upon which another has fallen."

"Well," the sheriff's tone was not enthusiastic. "It's come on a place where the woods and the beach meet, and he says there are signs of a little fire having been built, and chicken bones lying about. The woods are thicker there than here. He heard something come creeping through the bushes, but it must have been his first, for it plunged off again."

"Frank probably stumbled on some pebble phase," remarked Barry. "And that noise might have been a stray dog."

"Animals don't take off their clothes and try to burn 'em," retorted Hulse. "He saw near the remains of that fire a charred bit of greyish flannel, and it had some bits of old cloth, just narrow strips sewed onto it like the beginnings of trousers or a blanket."

"What's that?" A quick, incisive voice spoke so close to them in the darkness that the sheriff jumped.

"It was Captain Warren's voice, which had interrupted him, but the words were quite unlike those which Barry and heard before. They had a ring of stern command, and the speaker's guttural and stentorian voice was heard.

The WRONG FACE

By ISABEL OSTRANDER

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Fay Tudor, wealthy orphan, suffers a nervous breakdown in France after learning of the death in battle of her brother, Wilbur. She returns to the Tudor estate in Sandy Cove and is met by her aunt, an attractive widow, Mrs. Clara Tudor, and the latter's daughter, Laurel. The summer colony is frightened by the reported presence of a "wild man" whom Fay believes she has seen peering in the windows of the Tudor house.

Sheriff Hulse and his friend, Sergeant John Barry, a New York detective, investigate. Fay is attracted by the personality of Captain Warren, her brother's friend, who was with Wilbur when he fell. On the night of Mrs. Tudor's dinner, Kenneth Clayton, wealthy philanthropist, who is thought to be in love with Mrs. Tudor, proposes to Fay. She rejects him. After the dance and before retiring, Laurel confesses to Fay that she is in love with Harry Cadman, an old love of Fay's but for whom she has ceased to care. Fay congratulates Laurel and wishes her happiness. The girls sleep in the same room. In the morning, Laurel is found dead from asphyxiation and murder is suspected. Fay breaks the news to her Aunt Clara. Clayton offers his assistance to Fay and together they overhear the corner confirm the murder theory and express wonder at Fay's escape.

A professor in chemistry called in on the case ascertains that the murderer was committed by the use of cyanide monoxide gas.

This gas came from the exhaust pipe of an automobile and footprints of a woman's slippers were seen in the garage. The detective found the slippers, water-soaked in Fay's room and she admitted they were hers.

Fay denies connection with the crime. The detective searching for clues finds a gas mask on the mantel and seeks to find finger prints on it.

friend. But since—since she is not guilty, who is? My Laurel hadn't an enemy in the world! Sergeant Barry, find me the guilty man!"

She disappeared on the veranda, and Barry made his way slowly toward the back door. As he reached the back porch, still deeply engrossed in his meditations, Louise met him in a little flutter of renewed excitement.

"If you please, Sergeant Barry, Frank and the sheriff are down behind the garage. Frank called out to me to run and find you as quick as I could. He says he's got something to show you."

He neared the garage. A subdued shout greeted him.

"Look at this!" The sheriff's voice was triumphant. "How's that for the thing the murdering wretch used to convey that carbon monoxide to the house in?"

A tomato plant, frame and all, was lying on its side in the soft loam, which had been heaped in a circular mound about a shallow hole. In it lay a large tin oil can, in which a length of thin but strong rubber tubing had been attached, and from both there came a stench of the same fumes which Barry had detected when he examined the gas mask.

He took the thing up and scrutinized it carefully, then looked into the faces of the two men.

The sound of footsteps crunching on the gravel path leading from the house made the sheriff turn and whisper eagerly.

"Here comes Clayton and the hunch-brother. Look sharp and get that can into the tool house back of the garage, Frank. We don't want them snooping into this business just yet."

Frank obeyed hastily. As he departed Barry asked:

"What is this bunch of Frank's that he is on the track of

Reds To Present Strong Lineup

CINCINNATI, Mar. 9.—The arrival of Jimmie Cavanaugh, Babe Pinelli and Louis Fosseca at the training camp of the Cincinnati Nationals assured Manager Moran an infield for the opening exhibition games at Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday. Sam Deane, who was expected to accompany the other arrivals from the Pacific coast, had not put in an appearance last night, according to dispatches from Mineral Wells.

The lineup for the Fort Worth games announced by Manager Moran is: Fosseca, first base; Kinnick, second; Cavanaugh at short, and Pinelli at third, with Duncan, Burns and Seale in the outfield. Pitcher Pete Donahue, who is coaching a college team at Fort Worth, will start the game for the Reds on Saturday.

Games Next Week

Monday: Mutuals vs. Lafayette on 2 and 3; Brummeis vs. Regulars on 4 and 5.
Tuesday: Spartans vs. Imperial on 2 and 3; Okeles vs. Patrons on 4 and 5.
Wednesday: Steelmen vs. Keystones on 2 and 3; Thinkers vs. Nuggets on 4 and 5.

The Regulars who have been blazing the trail for the other teams in the Masonic Bowling League were handed a big jolt last night when they met the Spartans on the Play House alleys, dropping two out of the three games of the match.

Glen Edwards may be blamed for the defeat. Usually a 500 bowler, Edwards was so far off form that his performance was bad. He rolled 125 in the first game, 145 in the second and 108 in the final frames for the grand average of 376. Donaldson was the only man on the regulars who rolled any out of the ordinary score, amassing 536 pins in the three games. Jess Roberts even did not roll as well as usual, although he succeeded in accumulating 473 pins. He fell down in the second game, getting only 131 which is the lowest score he has rolled for some time.

The Spartans, while recording no sensational scores, rolled steady games, winning the first by 50 pins and the last by 38. Baughman and Staton were high men with 457 and 432 respectively. Ed Teach and Cookes fell down slightly for the Spartans, getting scores of 446 and 338.

With both teams fighting victory because of their lowly positions in the league race, the Okeles succeeded in winning two out of three games from the Nuggets last night despite the fact that only three men showed up. The team totals were close, 2105 to 2140, showing the teams about evenly matched.

So Do We
(Ironout Register)
Nig Blair and Mike Kearney would make the best match of this section. There are many Huntington fans who have seen Blair in action, who believe that he will be able to drop Mike.

Eddie Hock Showing Up Well With Reds

Jack Ryder, who is with the Reds at Mineral Wells, Texas, of local interest in the Enquirer says: (George) Burns, one of the first men out and the last of the field, went out to left field of his own accord, and circled around under fly balls in mid season style. But he will play center as soon as the club gets into action and he may play the middle garden all season, even if it shows up later.

Manager Moran said that he considers Burns the best judge of batters in the league and he may keep him in center and shift Hock to right when the latter reports. For the present Burns will play center, with Duncan in left and Neale in right.

Harper made a special impression on the Red leader by the easy manner in which he went after fly balls in center field.

Hock and Hogan also worked in the outfield and displayed plenty of speed. Hock played right and showed that he ran to a long ways for a fly ball. It is unfortunate for these youngsters that the team is so well supplied with experienced outfielders that they will have to show almost superhuman merit to break into the regular line-up. Manager Moran's present plan is to place them both with good clubs for another year of experience but they still have a chance to force him to carry them along through the season.

News From Toledo Tournament

Kearney Is One Busy Guy

HUNTINGTON, March 9.—Mike Kearney will put his other celluloid collar in his old wicker suit case and catch a "B. & O." rattler for McKeesport, Pa., where he is billed to film the third reel of his serial with Joe LaRue. Much to the surprise of everybody, especially the newspapermen, who are not used to being surprised more than 255 times a year, Mike is to receive the biggest prize he ever pulled down for a ring scene. Where can you dig up another fighter who has taken as many high dives as Kearney and still draws the fans through the turnstiles at a dizzy clip?

TOLEDO, Mar. 9.—Indications early today were that this would be another day of mediocre bowling in the American Bowling Congress tournament. None of the five-men teams last night showed anything, only one change taking place in the first ten.

The Beantown Hotel five, of Greenbay, Wis., rolled into fifth place with 2780. Teams from Grand Rapids, Detroit, St. Louis, Toledo, Cincinnati and other cities competed.

The first doubles squad went on the alleys this morning at 9 o'clock. The second shift was scheduled for 10:40 with the individuals an hour later. Teams from Grand Rapids, Toledo, Toledo, Lima, Detroit, Columbus, Joliet, Sandusky and Lima, Ohio.

The second squad is made up of six teams from Milwaukee, two from Cincinnati, two from Chicago, and one each from Toledo, Lima, Detroit, Columbus, St. Louis and Joliet.

The amount meeting of the A. R. C. will be held tomorrow when the city for holding the next tournament is to be selected. Grand Rapids and Milwaukee are seeking the meet.

Tommy Gibbons will be a 10 to 7 favorite over Harry Greb in their fight in New York next Monday.
Now they are talking of re-matching Blair and Butler. What for? Butler is too big and has too much reach for the local boy. Fans say that Blair would trim Butler in their next fight.
Twenty-seven Ohio cities are now holding boxing shows over two weeks.

Collegians To Meet Selects

The Baesman Selects will play their last home game of the season next Tuesday night in the P. H. S. gym when they meet the Morris-Harvey College quintet. Tickets for the game will be placed on sale at once. This contest should be witnessed by a big crowd for the Morris-Harvey team has only been beaten once on its home floor and the Selects earned the trick that one time. This contest was staged several weeks ago the defeat of the college five coming as a big surprise to their local backers in the vicinity of Huntington.

The college five will come here determined to gain revenge but they will find the Selects ready and a tough battle will be the result.

This will be the last game for the Selects before they leave for Indianapolis where they battle for the central states independent championship.

The Morris-Harvey college quintet is composed of players who have had several years experience on the school team and have a system of team work that is hard to beat. Besides retaining all their home games the college quintet has won most of its games played on foreign floors.

Mr. Goodman In Pinehurst Tournament

PINEHURST, N. C., March 9.—Arthur Yates of Rochester, the former Yale and All-American football star, won the qualifying medal in the annual spring tournament at Pinehurst today with a total of 81-50-15 for the 36 holes of play.

Yates, 70 today established a new competitive amateur record for the championship course.

G. A. Goodman of Portsmouth displaced the 36 holes in 224 and will look after the interests of Portsmouth in the match play.

BATTERY B QUILTS UNTIL NEXT FALL

Promoter Pat Shoenmaker of Battery B stated yesterday that he would not stage any more boxing matches for the soldier boys until next fall and winter. "Tad Cropper has Blair in charge and that leaves us out," Shoenmaker said. "We put on some good bouts and made some money and will be ready to boost all matches made by Cropper."

Ches Spencer Is Improving

Scout Billy Doyle is in receipt of a letter from Ches. Spencer, who is making strides toward regaining his health at Lake Saratoga, N. Y., where he has been for several months.

Spencer says he is getting a little better each day and with the advent of warmer weather he expects to pick up more rapidly. He says

Pitchers Tuning Up Slowly

MINERAL WELLS, Tex., Mar. 8.—Red pitchers were instructed to do very little throwing today, for the Red leader does not want any sore arms on the staff and will insist that they come to gradually. Pat is hopeful that Cliff Markle will come through this year as a regular. He talked to Cliff today about discarding his slow curve in favor of a change of pace ball and found Markle easier to accept any advice that will help him make good.

Moran also has considerable faith in the ability of Alan Clarke, Clarke is a southpaw, powerful and willing, and Pat wants to develop him into a pitching mate for Hock.

Big Bowling Match Tonight

Believing he has recruited a team of artists that will give the Masonic a real battle, H. H. Higgins will lead the Play House Five in combat at the Play House alleys this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The games will be rolled on alleys 4 and 5, total pins to count. The Play House Five will be composed of Higgins, Nodler, Bruno, Hurd, McMaster and Condliffe, while the Masons will line up with Walter, Orr, Patton, Leach, Reinhardt and Sherburn. The general public is invited to witness the struggle.

To Decide Title

Saturday afternoon in the P. H. S. gym the elementary school basketball title will be decided for 1922 when McKinley and Union quiet fight it out for the championship. The game will be played at two o'clock and a big crowd of school students is expected on hand to cheer for both sides. The winner will be presented with a silver loving cup by Baesman Selects.

Winners To Play

The state high school basketball championship will be decided at Ohio Wesleyan University Saturday. The northern half champion will be decided when Mt. Vernon meets the Postoria team. The southern half title will be fought for by Greenfield and Delaware. The winners then meet to decide the championship. This is one time that Stivers high of Dayton is not in the semi-final or final match.

Ironton Girls Here Friday Night

Tomorrow night in the P. H. S. gym the local high school girls five meet the Ironton high school girls in what will be the last contest of the season for P. H. S. girls.

The game will begin at eight o'clock as it will be the only game of the evening. Coach McMahon has the local team practicing hard in order that they may close the season with a smashing victory over their old time rivals, I. H. S.

All the regulars are in the practice sessions this week and when P. H. S. meets Ironton tomorrow they will have one of the strongest lineups of the season.

The Red and Blue girls won from Ironton girls when the two teams met at Ironton a couple of weeks ago. This time P. H. S. means to win by a bigger score as they are on their home floor.

ON THE BEACH AT CATALINA ISLAND

PRETTY soft for these major league ball tossers in the spring.

At least it is for the members of the Catalina Cubs who are training at Catalina Island in California.

While a number of major league clubs have been up against inclement weather the Cubs have been experiencing the finest kind of weather. One of the features of each day's workout is a run of several miles on the sandy beach. The rather unorthodox footing makes the task a difficult one.

Most of the players feel that it will tend to greatly increase their speed. They feel that when they get on a fast infield their only experience on the sands will prove very beneficial.

Several years ago a certain major league ball club used a football type shoe that was very heavy during the first week of practice.

The thought was that it would tend to speed up the players the moment they got into the high weight baseball shoe.

Manager Killifer of the Cubs is of the opinion that the daily runs he makes the players indulge in on the sandy beach will have a similar effect—speed 'em up.

The Phil Selby quintette proved too much for the High School Faculty last night, although the professors tried hard to win, running up a total of 19 in each of the first two contests before their opponents could make the required total for a victory. The Phil Selby squad depended mostly on teamwork with no individual stardom and it proved the right attack against the strong H. S. team.

The work of Walden and Wheeler was largely responsible for the good showing made by the Faculty.

EMBASSIES AS GIFTS

AFTER a long and arduous hunt, Ambassador Herriek succeeded in finding a fairly satisfactory home in Paris and now word comes that a wealthy American has purchased a fine house in the Faubourg Saint Germain which he will furnish appropriately for a permanent embassy. In this generous action he follows the lead of J. P. Morgan, who gave his house in London, inherited from his father, as an embassy for the United States.

So hereafter the housing problem of our ambassadors at the two principal diplomatic posts will be solved. What about the others? As a rule our representatives at London and Paris especially are rich men. Every ambassador under present conditions has to be pretty well provided with this world's goods, since his salary rarely does more than pay his house rent. This question of providing homes for United States ambassadors and ministers has been long discussed with no definite results. Frequently men eminently fitted for diplomatic service have been suggested for appointment, and then have been compelled to decline office on the ground of comparative poverty. Men who serve our country abroad should not have to go down into their pockets to make up deficiencies due to their inadequate pay.

Objections to the gift of houses for embassies by wealthy citizens have been made on the ground that our government was thus placed in the role of a pauper receiving alms. But if congress cannot be induced to make the necessary appropriations, it is better to have the burden on our diplomatic representatives thus relieved than to have them bear it. Perhaps congress will be shamed into providing suitable diplomatic homes at the chief capitals, as good ones, at least, as those in which Siam and Mexico and Persia house their representatives abroad.

OUR FUTURE OIL SUPPLY

STATISTICAL statistics show that the petroleum production of the United States in 1921 exceeded any previous year, and was greater than that of 1920 by 26,000,000 barrels, an increase of approximately five per cent. In the same period world production mounted by 55,000,000 barrels, a gain of nearly eight per cent. The increased activity in foreign fields is reflected in an increase of imports over exports, the excess advancing from 97,000,000 barrels in 1920 to 118,000,000 barrels in 1921.

At the same time consumption in the United States was declining. The net result was an increase of stocks on hand from 123,000,000 barrels at the end of 1920 to 183,000,000 at the end of 1921. In terms of days' supply, stocks were sufficient for 119 days last month as compared with 80 days a year ago.

The United States has been producing approximately 70 per cent of the world's oil supply for several years, but as foreign development is fostered and as our fields decline this dominance of America is certain to become less and less and finally disappear. In 1920 our production was 65 per cent of the world's total.

The point is that now, when the oil age seems to be coming to full power, this country finds its resources dwindling and seems certain to be more and more dependent upon the supplies from other countries. At present rate of use our fields are estimated by the United States geological survey to be sufficient for our needs for 20 years.

To the person who is content to review the fevered price movements in the American crude market for the past year, the collapse of profits of producing companies, and the excess of supply over demand in face of deteriorating conditions, the prospect for the industry must seem dismal, indeed. But the statistics of 1921 represent only a passing phase. Far from being a point where consumption is insufficient to permit continued activity, we are nearing a point where domestic production certainly cannot meet demand. Conservation must be the keynote of the future in American oil fields, and intensive development must supplant extensive exploitation.

ESTABLISHING CREDIT

WHEN, frequently, reports are read of defalcations, of this man and the other betraying a trust, one might be inclined to conclude that honesty is on the decline, that opportunity is the only thing needed to reveal want of character. Yet, one needs to keep one's glasses well burnished, if real conditions would be viewed clearly and in the right perspective.

For a quarter of a century the University of Michigan has been making loans to worthy students in need of funds. This has applied to both sexes and has been taken advantage of mainly by those putting themselves through college by their own efforts. It is stated that not one cent has been lost through willful failure to repay the loans. Doubtless, all these loans were made on honor since if the recipients had collateral they would not need the loan. That not one has betrayed the trust is evidence of the prevalence of honor.

It is the exception for one to go wrong. That is the reason we hear so much about one who has defaulted. Yet, clouded glasses may cause some to conclude that every man has his price. It is not true. The honest man does not get his name into the public prints because he is honest, but the man who is not honest and is found out does. The dishonest man gets more attention, but it would be erroneous to conclude from that that as a class the dishonest are the more numerous.

We have heard recently quite a bit about the doings of college students, some of it not creditable. However, we are warranted in concluding that those students who borrowed money from the University of Michigan and paid it back to a cent never brought reproach on the institution while they were there. Neither is it probable that any have done so since. Character is being formed in the years spent in college and one who goes right then is not likely to depart from it later.

An income tax report is something to be put off until March 11.

HAGAR AND ISHMAEL

SARAH, Abraham's wife, bore him no children. Sarah had a handmaid, Hagar, an Egyptian, whom she gave to Abraham, then was much displeased at what she had done and dealt hardly with Hagar. Hagar bore Abraham a son and Abraham called him Ishmael. The angel of the Lord said that he would be a wild man and his hand would be against every man and every man's hand against him and he should dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, March 9.—Mott Street in Chinatown draws derelicts from the Seven Seas to flaunt the Thousand Vices. Its tiny latticed windows are hung with scarlet as flamboyant as the lips of its women that smile through the night and quiver through the day.

The little curio shops, nut and dried fruit stores in many cases lead to the hidden iniquity of the suburban depths that honeycomb the narrow street. There the Tenderloin clique goes for its puppy dreams. For Broadway has many who make poppy their god.

In a recent raid in Mott street the police found a list of names—a "Who's Who in Dogland" and many are people of evident respectability who lead away to enter the land of the black smoke. In the same raid a woman in pink pajamas tried to parachute to safety from a second story window with an umbrella.

There is still the glamour of the old Bowery melodrama about Mott street, which is the only thoroughfare in Chinatown not commercialized for skittish sight-seers.

An elusive, shadowy creature, known in Chinatown Square as the "Pale Faced Man" appears in the big opium transactions always. She wears a ten thousand dollar fur coat and is said to live luxuriously in a quiet section of Flatbush.

A few short years ago he was a star on Broadway, playing the part of a delightful English clubman of the haw type. Then he was starred in the movies. After that somehow or other he could not find a suitable part and so he played the buffoon in a musical comedy. Recently he tried a starring venture in Canada. "At my last stand" he told me, "the audience consisted of three people and a cow that stuck its head in the window." His money is gone and old age has overtaken him. "What hurts most," he says, "is the way managers say they are out when I call. I know of no human being who is so friendless as the actor when he is 'through.'"

In one of the largest office buildings in New York the man who has the shoe shine privilege sends his shiners out over certain routes daily in the building. The shiner pays him $15 a week. The boss shiner makes $210 a week and never shines a shoe.

star on Broadway, playing the part of a delightful English clubman of the haw type. Then he was starred in the movies. After that somehow or other he could not find a suitable part and so he played the buffoon in a musical comedy. Recently he tried a starring venture in Canada. Too Good

Mr. Brown bought a parrot. He was told it was a good talker, and would soon learn to repeat anything spoken in its presence. A fortnight later, however, he returned with it to the shop.

"What's the matter with it?" asked the dealer.

"Why," said Mr. Brown, "the sassiest c-e-n-t-u-r-e sass-stutterer!"

What gives us is why the movie industry wants to hire anybody by the year that kin clean up anything as big as the post office department in a few weeks. It seems like the hard-est thing is being good without parading it.

Gladys Galoshes
When Gladys wears galoshes, and through the water sloshes, I long to see her go:
Her silken ankles twinkle, Her heads and bangles tinkle, She walks upon tiptoe,
Her skirt, extremely scanty, Shocks both her ma and ammy. It is so very short,
Her beaus she counts by dozens, And calls them pals and cousins, And breaks their hearts for sport.

When Gladys wears galoshes I find that fame all hush is, And learning, too, and gold; And nothing really matters But to protect from spatters
Her stockings neatly rolled, For rain and snow together, My favorite slushy weather
The almanac I con, For when it's soft and splashes, Then Gladys wears galoshes, And lets me put them on.

I am afraid that my command Of information may seem small: So what I do not understand I oft applaud the most of all!

Slow
"Did Slowboy praise your gown last night?"
"No; he never pays even a compliment until thirty days after it's done."

Hardly Necessary
The elderly bridegroom stepped uncertainly up to the valentine counter and in a rather blashed tone said to the saleswoman, "I want one for my wife."

(Glancing the clerk picked out one inscribed "To My Wife." The bridegroom looked it over, decided the sentiment was appropriate and said he'd take it. And while he was addressing and stamping it he said to the saleswoman: "I'd better sign this, hadn't I?"

"How many husbands has your wife?" was the humorous reply of the young woman who is no doubt, used to the idiosyncracies of husbands buying their first valentine messages for their wives.

When You Really Suffer
It is a terrible thing to have a neighbor's daughter five years old quit speaking to you because she and your son have had a falling out, especially in view of the fact that you have been thinking she liked you for yourself alone.

IF YOU ARE WELL-BRED
You will not through a pleasure call, waste the time of another who is busily engaged.
You will remember that hurry in calling on a new resident in your neighborhood may be intrusive and delay in calling may be lacking in respect.
You will remember that failure to return a first call is discourteous unless the person making it be really objectionable.
